Experience the thrill of hunting wild birds under wild conditions in beautiful South Dakota farm land. Steady your nerves as flocks of cackling cocks explode from corn, milo, CRP, marshes and grassy draws - thousands of acres of private hunting. Pull the trigger and the smell of gunpowder fills the air. Now take a minute to marvel at the ability of your dogs or ours to point and retrieve your birds. Enjoy socializing with your guide and hosts who will quickly become your friends as they go beyond the expected to provide you and your companions with the highest quality experience.

Relax and Unwind

Enjoy the modern lodge. Relive the day's hunt in front of one of the fireplaces, on the deck or around the huge dining room table. Dine like royalty, feasting on fantastic home cooked meals served family style - full breakfasts, great field lunches and bountiful dinners for the biggest appetites and most discriminating tastes.

Pick a package which includes lodging, meals, bird processing, field transportation, guides and dogs and warm up targets.

Yes, the hunt is on!
